“Your Partner in Global Growth”

AUTHENTIC INDIAN SPICES

We offer a diverse range of branded and unbranded spices from India, sourced directly from trusted growers. From raw whole spices to blended masalas, every batch carries the authentic aroma and flavor India is known for. Whether you're looking for bulk spices or retail-ready packaging, we make sure quality and consistency come first.

RICE AND WHEAT

We offer premium Basmati and Non-Basmati rice, including parboiled varieties, grown in the fertile plains of India. Each grain undergoes careful selection and modern milling, preserving its natural aroma and taste intact. Our bulk and retail rice options are suited for every market and cuisine.

BASMATI RICE

We offer the world's finest selection of Basmati Rice, the undisputed "King of Grains," sourced directly from premium Indian mills. We bring every variety, including the coveted 1121, 1509, Pusa, and Traditional Basmati, available in Sella (Parboiled), Steam, and Raw forms. Our commitment ensures unmatched grain length, distinctive aroma, and guaranteed 99% purity, delivering a consistent, high-quality product that commands a premium in international markets.

NON BASMATI RICE

We offer a diverse and high-performing range of Non-Basmati White Rice, meticulously processed to deliver consistency and versatility for global culinary demands. We bring premium varieties like Sona Masuri, Kolam, and robust options such as PR-11 and IR-64, alongside essential broken rice grades. Our focus ensures uniform grain size, superior cleaning, and low broken percentages, making them ideal for everyday consumption, food processing, and a wide array of international cuisines.

PARBOILED BASMATI

We offer exceptional Parboiled Rice, a testament to durability, nutrition, and high yield, perfectly suited for large-volume international demands. We bring specially processed grains like IR-64 Parboiled, which undergo a unique hydro-thermal treatment to lock in nutrients, enhance grain hardness, and ensure minimal stickiness upon cooking. This makes our Parboiled Rice a reliable and efficient choice for bulk tenders, institutional catering, and markets prioritizing robust, consistent cooking performance and extended shelf life.

CHILLI

All Types: Dried Pods, Crushed Flakes, and Fine Powder. We supply the most demanded varieties (e.g., Teja, Byadgi, Guntur) with guaranteed SHU (Heat Unit) and ASTA color values as per buyer requirement.

TURMERIC

High Curcumin Content: Sourced from prime regions (Erode, Nizamabad). Available Whole or Powdered. We guarantee a minimum Curcumin level for health and industrial applications, and a bright, natural color index.

CUMIN SEEDS

Aroma and Purity: Known for its signature flavor, our cumin is triple-cleaned with 99% minimum purity, uniform size, and zero foreign matter, ensuring a powerful, consistent flavor profile.

CUMIN SEEDS & POWDER

Seed and Powder: Superior-grade Eagle and Badami varieties. We focus on low split percentage in seeds and a fine, consistent texture in powder, preserving the seed's essential citrusy, earthy notes.

BLACK PEPPER

Density and Pungency: High-grade Malabar/Tellicherry varieties. Available in all grades (500 GL, 550 GL). Sourced for maximum essential oil content, providing superior flavor and heat.

CARDAMOM

Premium Grade: Small Cardamom (Green Gold). Sourced for vibrant green color and high oil content. Ideal for luxury food and beverage applications (e.g., traditional Middle Eastern coffee - Gahwa).
